Dialogue 4

Nurse: Good morning, Mrs. Chan. My name is Evelyn, and I'll be one of the nurses taking care of you here.

Patient: Nice to meet you. You look really young to be a nurse!

Nurse: Really? That's nice to hear. I've been a nurse for three years now.

Patient: Well, I guess everyone is young compared to me. I'm just 72 years "young".

Nurse: Good for you! Well, I see that you are here for a hip replacement.

Patient: Yes, my orthopaedic surgeon will come to see me soon.

Nurse: Are you nervous?

Patient: Not really.

Nurse: Will someone from your family be here with you?

Patient: Yes...I think I hear them now.

Nurse: Great! Well my shift is over and I need to leave now, but I'll be back tomorrow at 7.00 A.M. good luck with your surgery.

Patient: Thanks.
